CORRECTION

The article 'Determinants of Team Sport Participation Decision in the Wake of the Pandemic Among University Youth' (Terason et al, 2022) contained an incorrect author list.

The correct author list is: Sid Terason and Anuchit Kulwanich.

The remaining original authors, Manisha and Sanatan Tiwari, were involved in the early conception and design of the research. However due to time constraints they were not able to give final approval before the work proceeded to publication stage. They thus do not meet the definition of authorship and have asked to not be considered authors of the work.

COMPETING INTERESTS

The authors have no competing interests to declare.
